Lodge was opened in Due and Ancient Form by Worshipful Jerry R. Barnish WM at 8:04 PM followed by a brief talk from an FBI agent starting at 7:15 whom our WM invited to come in and discuss with the Brethren about being prepared in case of a gunmen or other emergency situation which could arise with the escalation of the increasing violence going on around us.

It is hoped that Special Agent Randolph will be coming out in the future when time permits. After the Opening Minutes of the last communication were read and approved. The Secretary was called upon to read the following Bills:

$116.59 from the PM Night Dinner to WB Bob Taylor.

$50.31 placed on the Lodge Debit card by WB Bob Taylor for PM Night Dinner.

$23.98 to Jerry Barnish WM for refreshments after the meeting

$123.26 Comcast Business

$96.00 MacFerrans Printing

A motion was made by Bro Keith Verrico and seconded by WB Don Keppen Jr Jr Warden to pay the bills. There were no petitions or correspondence MW Joe Rival then made his report which was accepted and sent to the auditing committee. MW Brother Rival was then recognized and reported to the Lodge about his difficulties with TD bank stating that he had done what they asked of us as our purpose was to open an account so that the Brethren could pay their dues and for various other Lodge activities, he being the Treasurer of Laurel Lodge was empowered by the Lodge to do so in our interest but since there were various issues with TD Bank he suggested we find another bank. It was suggested that WB Bob Taylor our Senior Deacon along with MW Rival will act on behalf of the Lodge in seeking another institution to set up accounts and to be signatories for the Lodge.

A motion was made by WB Craig Woodruff to close the account and to open another account in a different institution, starting off with a $250 dollar deposit or what would be suitable for the new institution to be able to open an account. This was seconded by Bro Keith Verrico and after being amended 3 times it was voted upon and passed that MW Bro Rival Treasurer and WB Bob Taylor Senior Deacon both be signatories on behalf of Laurel Lodge for this purpose.

Minutes Continued

WB Bob Taylor thanked the Lodge for the sympathy card he received on behalf of his Father in Laws passing, who was also WB James Weisensee's Fathers.

As members of this Lodge, Brethren should be making reports or passing along information pertaining to each other so that we can be there to offer assistance and prayers for them.

The WM then apologized for not having the visit to the BBNJ due to family issues and is hopeful that it may take place next year. He talked about the prestigious museum and programs that are happening there.
