Worshipful Masters Message

Greetings Brethren,

I'm sure most of you have heard at some time usually from a Past Master "that's not the way we did it in my year". Have you ever wondered if they ever heard it from their predecessors? Just how things were done 50 or 100 years ago, even two or three hundred years ago, we know they could not have been done the same way as they are now especially with new technology, things were always getting easier and with changes in society becoming different, Masonry has survived many events down through history from the Morgan affair, influenza of 1918, Two World Wars and now the COVID-19 outbreak just to name some. As long as we keep our Masonry in our hearts and practice its principles in our daily lives our gentle Craft will continue to survive into the future. We must keep our hearts pure and open to the wants and needs of our fellow creatures and never forget our Oaths and Obligations which our predecessors. Which our predecessors took as well. Sometimes all a Man has is his word. We must all remember those beautiful tenants we swore to uphold. These are what makes us who we as Masons. The way we do things in Lodge are subject to change as we have seen but our principles will always remain the same.

Respectfully, Craig Woodruff
Worshipful Master
