Worshipful Masters Message

As we all know Masonry is non-denominational. We welcome all from any creed or faith equally. But this is not always the case. In the early 19th century Illinois saw an enormous swell in its masonic membership. It saw a growth of 5 lodges and over 1400 members amongst them whereas the rest of the jurisdiction only had roughly around 450 members. A lot of these lodges and in some cases their entire membership roles consisted of members of John Smiths blossoming LDS or Mormon Church. These lodges were all chartered to operate by Grand Master Jonas of Illinois in the years between 1840 and 1842. The names of the lodges were Nauvoo Lodge, Helm Lodge, Nye Lodge, Rising Sun Lodge, and Keokuk.

Apparently, these lodges while what seemed to be wildly popular. Began to fall out of favor with their Grand lodge quite quickly, all of the above-named lodges began to lose their charters and dispensation to perform masonic works. The various offences included. Failure to pay Grand Lodge dues, improper balloting on multiple candidates, failure to bring records to Grand Lodge for inspection, to even initiating, passing, and raising a candidate all within a few days apart and not requiring a proficiency. This resulted in the Grand Lodge of Illinois revoking amity of these lodges and they all were classified irregular or clandestine.

This is not the only time though that Smith was tied into a masonic conspiracy. Later in life Smith married Lucinda Pendleton Morgan Harris. This was the widow of William Morgan of the infamous Morgan Affair and the events leading up to the anti-masonic movement.

SPECIAL MEETINGS CALLED FOR A KING

On December 20, 1874, a special meeting of New York Lodge No. 330 was held to exemplify the third degree for the edification of a Brother. His Royal Highness David Kalakaua, King of the Hawaiian Islands, and a member of Le Progres de l'Océanie Lodge No. 124 (Supreme Council of France) Honolulu, Hawaiian Islands. After the degree was exemplified, the Bible on which George Washington had taken his oath of office was displayed. The royal visitor asked that the book be opened at the page where the oath was administered. He took the book in both hands and kissed the page saying, "I thank God for this privilege." On January 15, 1865, the same royal visitor attended Chicago's Oriental Lodge No. 33 which had called a special meeting. Over four hundred distinguished visitors attended.

HOW MANY MASONS SIGNED THE DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE

Extravagant claims are sometimes made in connection with the Masonic membership of the signers of the Declaration of Independence. There were fifty-six signers of the document. There is satisfactory evidence to prove conclusively that eight were Masons. Twenty-four others are sometimes claimed as Masons, but evidence submitted is not completely satisfactory, being based of hearsay and "tradition", rather than documents. There are twenty-four signers who have never been claimed as Masons. The best answer the question is as follows: "Scholars have proved that eight Signers were Masons. As many as thirty may have been."
