Worshipful Masters Message

As the summer quickly approaches, I think back on how busy our lodge has been over the past few months. From official visits and DLIs to bringing in three new Entered Apprentices, Laurel Lodge has done a lot recently.

Summer is the time of traveling and as the season changes over, it reminds me of the most prized privilege of being a Master Mason: Traveling. Being able to freely visit other lodges and jurisdictions is one of the most under-utilized honors we have as Masons. It allows us to get all of what Masonry intended for us. Some of my fondest Masonic memories are of car rides with my dad or another brother to a lodge, getting to meet old and new brothers across the district, as well as taking a newly initiated brother to witness another degree for the first time.

I know the excitement that my son had when I took him to see the very same degree he just had done. When a group of brothers get out together and travel, all that is good about the craft is open to us. There is an infinite amount of Masonic brotherhood and education to be gained by expanding ourselves outside of just Laurel Lodge.

In closing, I challenge you to get out there with your brothers and travel. I'll leave you with these words by an unknown Masonic Poet, have a safe and happy summer.

Sincerely and fraternally,
Donald Keppen Jr.
Worshipful Master

Poem on Next Page

Wherever you may chance to be Wherever you may roam,

Far away in foreign lands;
Or just at Home Sweet Home;

It always gives you pleasure, it makes your heart strings hum

Just to hear the words of cheer,
“I see you’ve traveled some.”

When you get a brother’s greeting,
And he takes you by the hand,

It thrills you with a feeling
That you cannot understand,

You feel that bond of brotherhood
That tie that’s sure to come

When you hear him say in a friendly way
“I see you’ve traveled some.”

And if you are a stranger
In strange lands all alone
If fate has left you stranded
Dead broke and far from home,

It thrills you- - makes you numb,
When he says with a grip of fellowship,
“I see you’ve traveled some.”

And your final summons comes,
To take a last long trip,
Adorned with Lambskins Apron White
And gems of fellowship
The tiler at the Gate,
With square and rule and plumb
Will size up your pin and say “Walk In”,
“I see you’ve traveled some.”
