Worshipful Masters Message

The Three Tenets of Freemasonry

Brotherly Love, Relief, and Truth. We are taught these inexplicable truths of our institution in our first degree. They are the foundation of the life of any Freemason. Let us examine what these words mean.

Brotherly Love. It refers to the bond that we may experience with a family member or close friend. We come from all different walks of life as Freemasons, sometimes the only thing in common between brothers is Freemasonry itself. The principle of brotherly love teaches us to be patient with one another, to find the common ground between those of other ages and backgrounds. And finally, we learn to subdue our own passions and be pleasant and cordial. Through the tenet of brotherly love, we learn to have the same care for our fraternal brothers as we would our own family.

Relief. This is the general care for the welfare of one another. It builds off brotherly love, being there to lift the burden off of another brother's shoulders. It is helping a brother in his time of need. Being there not for personal gain, but just because it's the right thing to do. In the same way we would help our parents or children with their problems, we have the same duty to our Masonic brothers. The principle of relief makes us empathetic to each other and prompts us to lend a helping hand.

Truth. It can be defined as sincerity in action, character, word, as well as a strictness to a standard. Truth is a guide. It reminds us that our words, actions, and character should always be of high integrity. Our fraternity relies on its members to be truthful dependable men of honor, honest men you can rely on to be faithful and loyal friends.

Our goal as Masons is to live by these tenets. Through them, we strive to be men of great character and honor to our families and brothers and to enhance the world around us. We must hold this high standard of ourselves. As our brother Ben Franklin once said, "A good example is the best sermon."

Sincerely and fraternally,
Donald Keppen Jr.
Worshipful Master
