Worshipful Masters Message

Brethren, I hope this message reaches everyone in good health. I intended the subject of my master's message to be on procrastination, but I'll save that for a later date. Instead, I'd rather share with you all an article by the Ohio Grand Lodge on the symbolism of the hourglass.

“Throughout the rituals of Freemasonry, brethren encounter countless symbols designed to convey the fraternity's moral lessons and philosophies. These emblems teach us how to become better men, acting as a compass to guide our actions as we strive for justice and compassion for those around us. While it is vital for all Masons to ruminate on these symbols as they go through the degrees, few prompts the same self-reflection as the Hourglass.”

The passage further explains what exactly an hour glass is, and why it gained popularity.

“An hourglass is an early device used to track measures of time, such as an hour or minute. It is made of two stacked bulbs of glass joined by a passage at their apexes through which sand runs. It became popular in the 15th century for its dependability, finding regular use on ships, in kitchens, and in churches.”

The hourglass may have fallen out of favor in terms of telling time, clocks eventually taking over as technology advanced to more accurately give time, however the writing refers to the symbolism associated with the hourglass today.

“While today the hourglass is not as popular for time telling as clocks, its literal depiction of the past, present, and future have helped it endure the centuries as a popular symbol. Often depicted with wings, it represents humanity's fleeting nature, emphasizing that time will run out for each individual.”

As with many common symbols, the hourglass takes on a further meaning for us as Masons, as the passage demonstrates.

“Freemasons first encounter the Hourglass during the lecture of the third degree, where it is explained to be an emblem of human life. It represents the continuous passing of time and serves as a reminder that life is finite. Additionally, the two containers of the hourglass are an analogy on their own: that the need to flip the hourglass signifies the cycle between life and death. It also denotes the notion that we must be able to reverse our perceptions, attitudes, and actions at times for us to move forward.”

The uniqueness of the hourglass to us as Masons, is the challenge it presents to brethren. It encourages us to “live a full life and make the most of our time. It is a reminder to work for a life of compassion, honesty, and integrity so that we may improve not only our own lives but those in our community as well.”

Sincerely and fraternally,
Donald Keppen Jr.
Worshipful Master

A Message from our Senior Warden

Good Day Brethren

I hope that you and your families had a good and safe summer while enjoying healthy and active lives. Congratulations to Worshipful Master Don Keppen Jr. and his committee for the celebration of our lodge's one hundred year anniversary.

Any organization that reaches the century mark is not to be taken in stride. It should be celebrated with joy and with a watchful eye to the future. Laurel Lodge was formed during economic prosperity, held on through a depression and continued while wars raged and while the world is in turmoil. During these epochs our lodge remained as an entity of reason and fraternity. The year of 2023 begins the next century for Laurel. For that to happen it needs commitment, our lodge needs officers to serve as Junior Warden, Stewards and Committee Members. We face challenges. These challenges are not insurmountable, yet, they exist.

I look forward to 2023 as a year of growth.

Spes Mea en Deo est.

Fraternally,

Jerry Barnish Sr. Warden.
