Worshipful Masters Message

“Charity in thought, word, and deed.”

When the elderly couple rose from the kitchen table, I knew that our presence was appreciated. Our lodge delivered food baskets to people in the surrounding community. One could see on the faces of the couple there was a bit of embarrassment, but they were grateful.

It would be easy to think in terms of pity and how and why they would need help. Some would wonder if this deserved. Thinking about those terms would be irrelevant. They were fellow citizens of our state and nation. No other information other than the agency’s recommendation was needed. Thirty years later I still visualize how well dressed they were drinking an afternoon cup of coffee at the kitchen table. They were reserved and cordial. They were devoted to each other. As a member of our fraternity, I hope that we continue to aid and assist our fellow citizens.

Without equivocation or reservation.

W.B. Jerry Barnish, W.M.
